

January 5, 1990

Dear Subscriber,

I regret to inform you that the Commercial Space Report ceased publication with the October-November-December 1989 special issue. This difficult decision was due to overwhelming personal and professional commitments which made it impossible to devote the time to the newsletter and its readers that it deserved.

I will begin the process of mailing refunds (the amount paid prorated for remaining issues owed) over the next several weeks. Those who sent renewal checks recently will get them returned. Anyone who wishes to handle refunds differently--perhaps some may want the amount converted to back issues of their choice--should contact me as soon as possible.

Thank you all for your support over the years. Since we started the C.S.R., commercial space has come out of the science fiction books and become a reality. I am proud that among the subscribers to the C.S.R. are many who helped to make this happen. I like to think I had a small part in encouraging and informing them.

Sincerely,

Tom Brosz
